Theological Insights

Join the congregation for our second session of Theological Insights, a new series featuring young scholars speaking on theological themes. This session will feature CSJ Consociate Brianna Lloyd. Brianna received her Master of Divinity from Yale Divinity School in 2018 with an academic interest in religion and ecology. The title of Brianna's talk will be "In the Beginning...": Exploring a Story of Origin and Its Sacred Land Ethic.

"Service and ministry in this time of pandemic and beyond" workshop

All are invited to attend the next virtual workshop organized by our congregational ACOF. This session is hosted by the associates of Los Angeles on the topic of "Service and ministry in this time of pandemic and beyond." Presenters Joan Dupnick and Ann Shubitz are both associates, long-time educators, and active volunteers.

Lord hear our prayer!

LCWR has invited all religious congregations to join in prayer for a peaceful election process in the United States. The Los Angeles Province has published their intention to pray for this at 2pm on November 3. Following their lead, we invite all sisters and ACOF to pray for this intention at 2pm in your own time zone. We will thus be praying in the seven GMT zones of Japan (GMT + 9), Hawai'i (GMT - 10), Pacific (GMT - 8), Mountain (GMT - 7), Central (GMT - 6), and Eastern, (GMT - 5: New York and Peru), and Chile (GMT - 4).

Last weekend's open houses

Thank you to everyone who came to the third series of open house Zoom calls with the Congregational Leadership Team. Over this past weekend, we got to visit with over 100 sisters and ACOF across the congregation. When we sent the invitation to all of you, we suggested the question "What does hope look like for you these days?" The sharing among us was profound.

"Historically nuns have been ministry-driven. Our new mode in this pandemic time is presence."

"We are thinking and praying more globally."

"We are overcoming our fear of technology so we can speak to one another."

"In Hawai'i, we try to live Aloha. Our economy is badly hit, but we can get through this together."

The open houses were on last Friday afternoon, Saturday afternoon and evening, and Sunday afternoon. We scheduled the Saturday time so the sisters in Japan could attend. Saturday evening is Sunday morning for them. Two sisters did join us from Japan that hour, as well as three sisters from Peru, our two newly-professed in California, and an assortment of CSJs and ACOF from across the United States—our international congregational in gallery view.

Thank you for joining the Zoom calls and sharing your hope. It was a great reminder of how blessed we are to have each other and to be able to be at home with each other.
